Available data on health, nutrition, education, and economic performance indicated that in the 1980s the status of women in Bangladesh remained considerably inferior to that of men. Women, in custom and practice, remained subordinate to men in almost all aspects of their lives; greater autonomy was the privilege of the rich or the necessity of the very poor.

As the implementation date for increased BEE targets approaches, practitioners are still unsure about when the new targets become effective. The Codes of Good practice define stepped targets for the elements of Employment Equity and Procurement and stipulate simply that they should be applied from Year 6 to Year 10.
