Browning's poems "My Last Duchess" and "The Laboratory" both deal with jealous killers. I will examine the characters in both of these poems and note the similarities and differences between them. Duffy's "Education for Leisure" and Armitage's "Hitcher" both have people who are driven to kill because of boredom. I will also look closely at...

Violence and conscience in the poetry of Carol Ann Duffy

Both Carol Ann Duffy and Simon Armitage use a range of methods in their exploration of the theme of change. Duffy's poems tend to be more personal although in her poems about change, such as "Pluto" and "The Captain of the 1964 Top of the Form Team" she writes in a male voice which then distances her from the speaker.
